

Using Wireless Laptops to Infuse Technology Into the Classroom

Tuesday, November 5, 2002

1:00 PM to 3:00 PM

AGENDA

Henrietta Coursey, Director of Instructional Technology

Randy Abdallah, Instructional Technology Specialist

Basics of working with a laptop

Stand-alone mode

- The uses and advantages of a laptop
- Classroom Management
- Peripherals
- Backing up files
- Working with overhead projectors

Local Area Network (LAN) workstation mode

- Network hardware
- Identifying the network ID
- Sharing files and printers

Using the Internet to infuse Technology into the Classroom

- The District Website <http://www.mhss.org>
- Instructional Technology Resource Guide